

JPage Builder - Block reference

One sheet per block · version 0.69.0

For the general concepts (pages, editors, modules, colours) read the user manual.
The sheets list the options of each block, using the English names of the editor.

Layout

Section

Group: Layout

Goes inside: Page

Holds: blocks

Top-level container of the page. It holds one or more rows. It has a background (colour, gradient, image or video) that can change for desktop, laptop and mobile. The content width can be Boxed (stepped Bootstrap container), Fluid (full width) or Custom (maximum width per device). With "Full-width section" the background runs from edge to edge of the window, even in a boxed template.

Row

Group: Layout

Goes inside: Section, Column, Modal, Offcanvas

Holds: Column

Splits the space into columns on the Bootstrap 12-part grid. It sets the gap between columns and the vertical alignment. When you add a row, JPage Builder creates a first column inside it.

Column

Group: Layout

Goes inside: Row

Holds: blocks

One column of a row. Set the width in twelfths, automatic or as a percentage, with separate values for tablet and mobile. You can also resize it by dragging its edge in the editor. It holds the content blocks.

Chat form

Group: Components

Goes inside: Column, Section, Modal, Offcanvas

Holds: Form field

Contact form that sends nothing to the server: on submit the answers become one message and WhatsApp or Telegram opens with it, ready to send. With Telegram the message is copied and you paste it into the chat. The fields are child blocks (text, email, phone, long text, drop-down list), full or half row, and can be required. The privacy checkbox, when on, must be ticked before sending.

The image shows a chat form component within a dashed border. It contains the following elements:

- Name : A text input field.
- Email: An email input field.
- Message : A large text area for the message.
- ☐ I have read and accept the privacy policy: A checkbox with associated text.
- Send message: A green button with a paper plane icon and the text "Send message".

Floating chat

Group: Components

Goes inside: Column, Section, Modal, Offcanvas

WhatsApp or Telegram chat button pinned to the window: it stays visible while the page scrolls. Choose one of nine positions (corners, middle of the sides), the offset from the edge, the colour, the icon, a label next to it (hidden on mobile) and a pulse animation. For WhatsApp the message can be pre-filled. In the editor the button shows in place on the page, with a dashed border, so you can select it.

Common options

These options appear in almost every block. They are not repeated in the block sheets.

Spacing

Padding and Margin: four sides, with separate values for desktop, laptop, tablet and mobile where the editor offers them. The default padding of Section, Row and Column is set in the component Options.

Visibility

Hide on desktop, Hide on laptop, Hide on mobile: the block stays in the page but is not visible on the chosen device.

Advanced

- HTML ID: an identifier for in-page links (example `#contact`).
- CSS class: classes to add to the block.
- Custom CSS: CSS rules for this block.

Typography

Blocks with text have one or more "Typography" groups. Each group holds: colour, hover colour, size, italic, underline, text transform, weight.
